

OPEN THE TAB.

AI fluency starts with one useful, low-risk task.

IT'S NOT A CONFIDENCE
PROBLEM. IT'S A PHYSICS PROBLEM.

01 SEARCH FINDS. GENERATIVE AI MAKES A FIRST PASS.

SEARCH

Points to existing material.

Open it. Check the source. Decide if it supports the claim.

GENERATIVE AI

Makes a new first pass.

A useful draft is not automatically a source or a finished answer.

02 TWO LIMITS WORTH REMEMBERING

1. MISSING CONTEXT

It cannot use the situation, rules, audience or facts you did not provide.

2. HALLUCINATION

A polished answer can still contain invented or incorrect information.

It read everything. It's lived nothing. And it never says "I don't know."

03 SIX TERMS TO KEEP

GENERATIVE AI

Creates new text, images, code or drafts.

MODEL

The trained system powering an app.

APP

The product surface where you work.

HALLUCINATION

A confident answer with invented or wrong material.

CONTEXT

The relevant situation and information.

YOUR JUDGMENT

Your evidence, taste and final decision.

04 WHY OPENING THE TAB MATTERS

25% LOWER

Average women's GenAI adoption across 18 studies and 140,000+ people.

HBS, 2025

1/2 VS 1/3

About half of men versus one-third of women in a 2024 US survey.

NEW YORK FED

+14 POINTS

Senior women in technical functions led men peers in adoption on average.

BCG, 2024

Dated, scoped adoption findings - not global population rates and not claims about ability.

05 YOUR FIRST MOVE: ONE SMALL TASK, THREE FIRST PASSES

PICK

one low-risk task you can judge.

PROTECT

private or restricted information.

PASTE

the same task into each available tool.

COMPARE

what each answer understood or missed.

CHOOSE

what helps, then correct it yourself.

GET IN, LOSER. WE'RE LEARNING AI.

REGINA GEORGE ENERGY. BUT MAKE IT AI.

SMALL SIPS. BIG MOVES.

THE THREE LINES TO KEEP

APP IS NOT MODEL. CONFIDENCE IS NOT CORRECTNESS.
A FIRST PASS IS NOT THE FINAL SAY.
